FIRE!

Greenville Has It's First Business House Fire Saturday Night That Has Visited Us In Years.

An alarm of fire shortly after 3 'clock last Sunday morning quickly turned out the volunteer department and hundreds of spectators to a blaze that destroyed the stock of L. Hummel, general merchant, and damaged the building of Mr. J. G. Chatham to the extent of several hundred dollars. When night watchman Tinsley discovered the fire it had gained small headway, and while the volunteers made a record run; and soon had two streams playing on the flames, it is thought that the stock is practically worthless, from fire and water damage. On account of the nature of the stock-dry goods, notions, shoes, millinery, etc.—the flames spread rapidly and were quickly destructive, while the water caused much necessary dare-

CIRCUIT COURT.

Winter Term of Muhlenberg Circuit Court Convenes Monday, With Light Docket to Be Handled.

Hop. W. P. Sandidge, as judge, opened the winter term of Muhlenberg circuit court at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, and the court room was well filled with people. The grand jury was empanelled and given instructions, the petit jury was chosen, and the business of the court was started in full swing. Hon. Randolph Mallory, district attorney, has been a very busy man, and with the assistance of county attorney T. O. Jones has disposed of several cases. There were the usual Jarge number of continuances, and a few very old cases were filed away. Following are the juries:
